BETHEL, Conn., Feb. 12, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- BranchServ, a Division of Custom Vault Corporation, has been recognized for its leadership in branch automation by industry powerhouse, Nautilus Hyosung. At its December meeting in Dallas, TX, Hyosung launched its new 8300 series of recycling ATMs and recognized dealers who are helping them lead the branch transformation charge.

BranchServ received special recognition with two of the three prestigious awards given. The Trail Blazer Award was presented to BranchServ in recognition of their leadership in promoting and implementing core connected ATMs. The Waste Management Award was a tongue-in-cheek reference to Hyosung's recycling technology. It was presented to BranchServ in recognition of their leadership in the sales and installation of recycling ATMs.

Andrew Ryan, Hyosung's VP for FI Dealer Channel Sales said, "We are fortunate and proud to partner with BranchServ. Their dedication to helping customers understand and implement technology that delivers great ROI and exceptional customer experience is outstanding. These awards reflect the results of that dedication."

David Pepin, BranchServ President concurred with, "BranchServ is driving automation in branches nationwide via our alliance with Nautilus Hyosung. We are managing with purpose and looking forward to seeing this collaborative relationship reap significant results for Hyosung, BranchServ and our customer base in 2020."
